Dear Gottlieb:

You will note by the enclosed statement, all the teams but The Yankees have sent $100.00 fees due for May. They are to deduct the advances made to umpires during May from their June dues, and send the balance in to the treasury.

I realize The Stars advance a great deal more than the other teams, but to keep the records straight, you should send the $100.00 due for May and deduct the May advances from your June dues also.

Your card only showed the advances made to McClary by the other teams. I am sure they have all used other home umpires beside him, and advanced train fare also. If you talk to any of them see if you can get them to send statements to me.

Very Truly

for Abraham Manley Tress.
